INTRODUCTION.

1142233

In 1854 was printed, for Gen. William H. Sumner of Roxbury, a "Memoir of Increase Sumner, Governor of Massachusetts," to which was added a "Genealogy of the Sumner Family, by William B. Trask." Some additions were printed in the N. E. Historical and Genealogical Register, for October, 1855. Mr. Trask was entirely competent to have prepared a genealogy, which would have made this present volume unnecessary; but Gen. Sumner was willing only to have very limited researches made, concerning principally the branches most nearly related to his own. The "Genealogy" therefore is exceedingly imperfect, and so misleading as to cause one to suppose the family a very small one; and it was in consequence of this mistake that the present writer undertook the work, which has grown in progress to an extent never dreamt of, or it would probably not have been begun. Once under way, however, interest has kept pace with material, and I feel no regret for the time given to the work, or the trouble which has of necessity accompanied it.

The family has been a fairly prominent one, though few of its members have gained any special fame. One can however be justly proud of Gov. Increase Sumner and of Gen. Edwin V. Sumner, to say nothing of Senator Charles Sumner, whose connection with the family unfortunately was somewhat irregular. Perhaps the most remarkable fact in the family record is the number of Deacons and of Soldiers. Several took part in the disastrous expedition to Canada in 1690, and there is a long roll of Revolutionary heroes. Of those who fought for the Union 1861–65, I have only noticed the dead and those living who held commissions, but there were many others.

I began long ago to keep all items relating to the family, old and new, and in 1875 took up in earnest the work of perfecting the Genealogy. I sent circulars to all of the name whose addresses I obtained, and have since then sent many more. I have found the various members of the family generally ready and able to help, but am sorry to say that from some I have in vain sought information. For aid on many points and for facts relating to many branches I am especially indebted to Dr. Charles F. Sumner of Bolton, Conn., and Edward Sumner of Dedham, who have sent me numerous letters during the four years of my labors. Many others have aided me greatly in the record of their own lines, of whom I will only name Rev. John B. Sumner of Binghamton, N. Y., John A. Sumner of Middletown, Conn., Norman Sumner of Atlanta, Ill., Ebenezer Sumner of Upper Jay, N. Y., John Sumner of Newburyport, Alfred H. Sumner of Boston, Miss Harriet H. Sumner of Foxboro', Charles A. Sumner of Burlington, Vt., William P. Sumner of Calumet, Mich., Alonzo H. Sumner of Ilion, N. Y., Andrew J. Sumner of Milford, Earl W. Sumner of Darien, N. Y., Austin Sumner of Boston, and Mansfield Sumner of Middlebury, Ohio. The portrait of Rev. Dr. Joseph Sumner is presented by a descendant, George Sumner of Worcester.

But all the information given by others would not have gone far towards making the genealogy as full as it is (though even now by no means what I would like), without the time and trouble which I have myself given to the work, in travelling about New-England and examining the regular sources of genealogical knowledge, town-records, church-records, probate-records, graveyards, old newspapers, &c. I greatly regret the long chapter of "additions and corrections," but only blame myself in respect of very few as responsible for their not being in the proper places. Most of them appear as they do, because my correspondents only waked up too late to the fact that they really had something to communicate to me, and often it was only on seeing the proof-sheets that a person appreciated that I was in earnest in the work, and had but an imperfect account of his particular branch. In this is found the explanation of differing dates of birth attached to one man, and it may be taken as certain that the second represents later information, and is therefore more likely to be correct.

The plan of the work is so simple as hardly to demand explanation. I have used very few abbreviations,—b., m. and d., for born, married and died, being nearly or quite all. The figures at the right of lines, after names of sons, denote the numbers by which the sons are carried on as heads of families in the next generation. I have no belief that the volume is free from mistakes, but think there is no line of descent to which any doubt can possibly be attached. I have no more additions, except that Edwin V. Sumner, 548, has been appointed and confirmed Major Fifth Cavalry U. S. A., and Samuel S. Sumner, 338. viii., Major Eighth Cavalry U. S. A.

GENEALOGY.

THE principal family of the name of Sumner in this country is traced back to ROGER SUMNER of Bicester, Oxfordshire, England, husbandman. He married at Bicester 2 November, 1601, Joane Franklin, and died there 3 December, 1608; his widow married 10 January, 1611, Marcus Brian of Merton, a neighboring parish, who died in 1620. Roger Sumner had a brother William, who died at Bicester in 1597. The only child of Roger and Joane Sumner was William, of whom as follows:

2. II. WILLIAM SUMNER, born at Bicester in 1605, married there 22 October, 1625, Mary West; came to New England* in 1636, and settled at Dorchester, Mass. He was made Freeman of the Colony 17 May, 1637, and at various times held many offices of respectable importance. He was a Selectman of Dorchester in 1637, and more than twenty other years. From 1663 to 1680 he was one of the Feoffees of the school land, and from 1663 to 1671 he was one of the Commissioners to try and issue small causes; in 1663, he was also chosen clerk of the trained band. He was a Deputy from Dorchester to the General Court in 1658, 1666–70, '72, '78–81, '83–86; he does not, however, appear prominently on its records. His wife died at Dorchester 7 June, 1676, and he 9 December, 1688. Children:

i. William, b. at Bicester. 3
ii. Joane, b. at Bicester; m. Aaron Way of Dorchester, afterwards of Boston and Rumney Marsh; he died in 1695, and she went to South Carolina with two of her brothers in 1696.
iii. Roger, b. at Bicester in 1632. 4
iv. George, b. at Bicester in 1634. 5
v. Samuel, b. at Dorchester 18 May, 1638. 6
vi. Increase, b. at Dorchester 23 February, 1643. 7

* William Sumner continued to own land at Bicester till 1650, as appears from a document in possession of one of the family.

APPENDIX.

CANADA SOLDIERS.

In the Company of Soldiers under Capt. John Withington in the unfortunate expedition to Canada of 1690, were:

Insine Samuel Sumner,
Sargt. Samuel Sumner,
Ebenezer Sumner,
William Sumner,
William Sumner,
Jezeniah Sumner.

In 1735 the General Court of Massachusetts granted to the survivors of this company or their heirs a township called at first Dorchester Canada, but incorporated in 1765 by the name of Ashburnham. From a list of the grantees on record in the Archives at the State House, the Sumners are identified as, 3. vii., 4. ii., 4. v., 5. iii., 5. iv., 7. iii.

DORCHESTER, SOUTH CAROLINA.

In 1695 Rev. Joseph Lord led a company of persons from Massachusetts to form a settlement in South Carolina. Samuel and Increase Sumner with their families and their sister Joane Way were among these emigrants, and the formal dismission of the Sumners "to the Church of Christ near Newington in South Carolina" is found on the records of the Church of Dorchester, Mass., under date of 1 November, 1696. The settlement was called Dorchester, but about 1752 it was abandoned for a new site at Midway in Georgia. The names of Nathaniel Sumner of Dorchester, S. C., 1724, and Edward Sumner of the same place 1749, are both found at the Suffolk Registry of Deeds. Edward Sumner was one of those who moved to Midway in 1753, where Thomas Sumner m. Anna Baker, 19 September, 1782, but left only daughters; he had a brother Edward, who d. at Midway 2 November, 1789, unless this was the father. This branch is not now known to exist in the name of Sumner.

REVOLUTIONARY HEROES.

Several of the family served in the Revolutionary Army. I have positive record of the following:

Lieut. William, 27. vi. or 67.
Clement, 27. viii. or 68.
Major Job, 27. ix.
Rufus, 27. x.
Eli, 30. ii. or 73.
Darius, 35. vi. or 84.
Capt. John, 36. v. or 86.
Benjamin, 37. vi. or 90.
George, 40. i. or 95.
Ebenezer, 40. iv. or 96.
Lt. Col. John, 46. vi. or 108.
Ebenezer, 61. ii. or 147.
William, 62. i. or 149.
John, 62. iii. or 150.
Robert, 86. i. or 198.
William, 107. i. or 246.
Ebenezer, 109. i. or 248.
Shubael, 109. ii. or 249.

FAMILY OF "SHERIFF" SUMNER.

Job Sumner (27. ix.) was never married, but had by Esther Holmes a son Job, born at Milton 20 January, 1776, whose name was afterwards changed to Charles Pinckney Sumner. He graduated at Harvard College in 1796, and was for many years a prominent and respected citizen of Boston, being Sheriff of Suffolk County, 1825–39. He married 25 April, 1810, Relief, daughter of David Jacobs of Hanover. He died in Boston 24 April, 1839, and his widow 15 June, 1866. Children, all born at Boston:

i. { Charles, b. 6 January, 1811; H. C. 1830; d. in Washington 11 March, 1874.
ii. { Matilda, b. 6 January, 1811; d. 6 March, 1832.
iii. Albert, b. 31 August, 1812; m. 4 September, 1840, Catherine, widow of ——— Barclay; lost at sea 4 November, 1856.
iv. Henry, b. 22 November, 1814; m. in December, 1847, Cornelia R. Hall; d. at South Orange, N. J., 5 May, 1852.
v. George, b. 5 February, 1817; d. 6 October, 1863.
vi. Jane, b. 28 April, 1820; d. 7 October, 1837.
vii. Mary, b. 28 April, 1822; d. 11 October, 1844.
viii. Horace, b. 25 December, 1824; drowned on Fire Island 18 July, 1850.
ix. Julia, b. 5 May, 1827; m. 19 July, 1854, John Hastings; d. in Marion Co., Cal., 29 May, 1876.

Of this family but few lived to fulfill the promise of their early years. George, the fourth son, gained a high reputation as an antiquary, particularly for his researches concerning the Pilgrim Fathers in Holland. The eldest son Charles was during the latter years of his life one of the most prominent men in public life in the United States. Many biographies of him have been published, and I will only here mention that he was a member of the Senate of the United States for Massachusetts from 1851 till his death, which took place just a year before the end of his fourth term in that office.

TRADITIONS.

The Sumner family is not rich in traditionary history. I have heard but few suggestions of a great fortune in England, though there certainly are some reports to that effect. I have, however, received some strange statements as to the founders of the family in this country, and think the following worth printing: —"About the year 1625 a colony arrived from England, and settled in Roxbury. ——— Sumner was born in Lancaster Co., England. He had five sons; two settled in Charleston, S. C.; one in Salem, and two remained in Roxbury. Edward was born in Roxbury 1636. About the age of 25 he moved to Martha's Vineyard, where he remained twenty-five years, the last fifteen of which he was Chief Justice of the Island. In 1686 he returned to Roxbury, where he remained till his decease in 1732 at the age of 96 years. The circumstances of his death were the following: An aged brother, with whom he had long been at enmity, came from Charleston with the hope of adjusting their difficulties. His hopes were realized. Difficulties were settled, and the old man started on his return, but stopped at the door, and calmly spoke the following words:—'Thanks to God! Our difficulties are settled. I must go; but we part with the joyful hope of meeting again in friendship in a better world.' Edward faintly ejaculated Amen! Amen!! Amen!!! Saying this he falls from his chair to the floor. Assistance was immediately called, but in vain. Nature was exhausted, — his spirit had fled, — his body was lifeless."

"Grandfather, Thomas Sumner (49), was from England, and held three commissions under the crown of Great Britain, and was Judge of the King's High Court. Grandmother Sumner's maiden name I never knew, but she was a French lady, and highly educated, also an authoress. Grandfather, Thomas Sumner, had a grant of five hundred acres of land given him, where the city of Rochester now stands, by George III., King of England."

"Wm. B. Sumner was in the East Indian war, along with Lord Clive, and returned and purchased a large estate in Cumberland. The Sumner family originally went from France to England. Two brothers came from England in the first settling of the Colony. Their oldest brother was Sir Charles Sumner."

UNACCOUNTED FOR.

In the early generations the following, of whose death I have no record, are believed to have left no children: — 8. v., 24. i., 24. ii., 26. v., 29. xi., 35. i., 44. iii., 50. vii., 50. x., 80. ii., 90. ii., 102. i.

UNCONNECTED FAMILIES.

There is a distinct family of the name in the Southern States, of which Benjamin Sumner of Goldsboro' or Salisbury, N. C., wrote that it was founded by William Sumner, who came from England about 1690, and settled at Nansemond, Va. He had sons, James, John, Jethro, William and Dempsey, four of whom certainly had children in Virginia and North Carolina. Gen. Jethro Sumner, of the N. C. line in the Revolution, was son of Jethro. Benjamin Sumner, above mentioned, was son of Jethro, son of Dempsey, who settled at Chowan, N. C.; he has several sons, and there are also other representatives of the original founder.

A separate origin may also probably be claimed for Isaac Sumner, who was of Portsmouth, N. H., 1735, and was drowned in 1736, leaving widow Deborah. I presume that Stephen Sumner, who died at Portsmouth in 1794, was a descendant, and perhaps Mehitable, who married Rev. Moses Hale of West Newbury, b. 1715, d. 1779, and also Dorothy Sumner, who died at Newburyport in 1834, aged 68. This last was from Portsmouth, and had a sister Mary, who married ——— Schneider, and secondly Capt. Nathaniel S. Stanwood of Newburyport. Dorothy and Mary may have been sisters of Stephen, above mentioned, and he may have been father of Benjamin who was wounded on the Chesapeake, and of Stephen, of whom I have the following record: — He is supposed to have been born in Newburyport, and certainly had four children, Sarah, Joseph W., Maria and Abigail. The last married ——— Andrews of Eastport, Me., where she lives. Joseph W. married at Eastport, Me., Sarah Ann Harrington, and had three children, Judson M., Gleason, and a daughter, all of whom moved to Taunton, where Judson M., b. at Eastport in 1849, m. 5 May, 1874, Grace E., daughter of James Graham of Boston.

POSSIBLY CONNECTED FAMILIES.

Moses Sumner, b. about 1799, was taken from Boston to Provincetown at the age of two, and given to a man there by the name of David Cook; he died at Provincetown 5 January, 1855, leaving a widow and six children, Enoch N., Josiah T., Joshua, Elizabeth, Mary G., and Huldah C. I can give no guess as to his parentage, and it would seem quite probable that he was an illegitimate child.

Another family, of which I have a fuller record, is descended from a William Sumner, who is said to have come from Boston, and to have had a brother Jonathan. This William m. at Norwich, Vt., 12 June, 1796, Sarah Smith, and is said to have died about 1804. Children:

i. Hannah, b. at Norwich 4 August, 1797; m. James Parker of Oak Orchard, Orleans Co., N. Y.
ii. Samuel C., b. at Hanover, N. H., 27 January, 1799.
iii. William, b. ———; m. at Middlebury, Vt., 13 February, 1823, Amanda Jones of Hubbardton, he being then called of Braintree, Vt.

Samuel C. Sumner, b. at Hanover, N. H., 27 January, 1799; m. at Braintree, Vt., 23 September, 1819, Mary Flint of Braintree; lived at Braintree; d. 23 February, 1873; she lives at Roxbury, Vt. Children:

i. Samuel Wilson, b. 28 July, 1820.
ii. Jonathan Flint, b. 5 April, 1822; m. Hannah E. Linfield; lives at Braintree.

iii. Benjamin L., b. 26 May, 1824; m. Emeline Martin; lives at Braintree.
iv. William, b. 7 December, 1826.
v. Godfrey Richardson, b. 16 October, 1828; d. 25 February, 1832.
vi. Hannah, b. 24 December, 1832; m. 7 December, 1848, John Albin of Randolph; d. 13 December, 1853.
vii. Godfrey, b. 31 March, 1835; m. Emma Sterling; lives at Warren, Vt.
viii. H. Jane, b. 17 October, 1837; m. Martin Van Buren Richardson.
ix. Mary M., b. 17 April, 1839; m. John Albin; d. 6 April, 1858.

Samuel Wilson Sumner, b. at Braintree, Vt., 28 July, 1820; m. Lucy A., daughter of Abel F. Martin; was Sergeant 8th Vt. Vol. Infantry; d. in Hospital at Frederick City, Md., 5 August, 1864; she d. 11 March, 1865; they left several children.

319. Thomas Hubbard Sumner, A.B.

A new and accurate method of finding a ship's position at sea, by projection on Mercator's chart. When the latitude, longitude, and apparent time at the ship are uncertain; one altitude of the sun, with the true Greenwich time, determines, first, the true bearing of the land; secondly, the errors of longitude by chronometer, consequent to any error in the latitude; thirdly, the sun's true azimuth. When two altitudes are observed, and the elapsed time noted, the true latitude is projected; and if the times be noted by chronometer, the true longitude is also projected at the same operation. The Principles of the Method being fully explained and illustrated by Problems, Examples, and Plates, with rules for practice, and examples from actual observation. By Capt. Thomas H. Sumner. Boston: published by Thomas Groom & Co., 82 State Street. 1843.
